

House Resolution No. 3372

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State youths who admirably demonstrate their true potential as lifelong learners, involved citizens, and future societal leaders through the excellence of their accomplishments as students; and

Whereas, Anthony Savio attained considerable distinction as a student at Saint Louis Priory, which he attended for six years as a member of the 2007-2008 graduating class; and

Whereas, while at Saint Louis Priory, Anthony Savio developed and maintained an impressive reputation for lettering in wrestling, soccer, track, golf, and rugby; and

Whereas, Anthony Savio also was active in the development of the Tutoria mentoring program, through which he was invited to Santiago, Chile, for two weeks to attend school and to learn about the Tutoria program in operation there; and

Whereas, in addition to his regular college-track studies, Anthony Savio accrued six years of French language practice that enables him to speak French in many social situations; and

Whereas, no stranger to honors and accolades, Anthony Savio earned the Presidential Award during the past two years in light of his work and dedication to the Aim High program for which he volunteered more than 100 hours of financial management instruction and organized sports through which fifth-through-eighth grade students could learn good sportsmanship in a positive environment; and

Whereas, Anthony Savio deserves mention of his additional, on-line studies in the area of real estate sales through the American School of Real Estate; and

Whereas, Anthony Savio plans to continue his education at the University of Dayton where he will enter the school's five-year engineering Master's program:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join to applaud the personal, academic, and athletic success garnered thus far in life by Anthony Savio and to convey to him this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Anthony Savio.
